

Personal Points

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to let us hear from you.

Captain John Small has returned from the "Wigwam" at Chicago.

Mrs. W. H. Overy of Ironton is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Simon Nelson.

Miss Florence Wilson is visiting her uncle, J. N. Wilson, at Dover.

Miss Emma Wheeler has returned from Oakwoods, where she has been visiting the Misses Field.

Mrs. A. Norris of Paris is spending the summer with the family of S. M. Hudson of Aberdeen.

Miss Lida Blackburn of Middletown, O., is visiting Mrs. J. M. C. Ballenger of East Third street.

Captain J. C. Power and daughter Miss Bessie of Aberdeen are visiting his daughter Mrs. Charles Brown at Portsmouth.

Mrs. E. R. Blaine, after a visit to her parents, Colonel and Mrs. Frank S. Owens, has returned to her home at Lexington, accompanied by her sister, Miss Lida Owens.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Nat P. Phister, who were expected here this summer on a visit to his parents, Dr. and Mrs. John P. Phister, will not be able to come, owing to the illness of Lieutenant Phister's wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Duke of Salt Lake City are here on a visit to relatives and friends. Mr. Duke is City Treasurer of Salt Lake City and one of its foremost citizens. In conversation with The Ledger he spoke most encouragingly of the future, paid a high compliment to the Mormon policy of President Harrison, and says if the Government will just keep "hands off" for five years, the Genies of Utah will settle the Mormon question peacefully and forever.

Aberdeens has the baseball fever.

Five lawyers are confined in Sing Sing prison, New York.

J. F. BARBOUR is confined to his home by a spell of sickness.

OVER 3,000,000 postal cards are used daily in the United States.

THE Kentucky State Dental Association is in session at Louisville.

UNCLE SAM provides 75,000 new mail bags annually, at a cost of $40,000.

Mrs. LOUIS CAMP of Sherburne has been sent to the Asylum at Lexington.

INSURANCE aggregating more than $3,000,000 is now carried on the World's Fair buildings.

MAJOR CHENOWETH, the Druggist, has all kinds of machine oil, and wants LEDGER readers to know it.

JAMES GUTHRIE HERR of Snider and Mrs. Fannie McClelland were married at the home of Mrs. H. in Lexington.

RALPH CHAMFORD the well known Cincinnati detective was married yesterday to Miss Clara Hudson also of that city.

THE movement to purchase ground in Dover for a small park is assuming definite shape, says The News.

SCOTT COUNTY is to have a new jail at Georgetown. It will cost $11,300, and will be completed by October 15th.

THE Fourth will be celebrated on the Fair Grounds in West Union, O., under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias.

AN apple tree in the yard of John Blanchard, East Second street, is quite a curiosity. On one side are full grown apples while the other side is in full bloom. A prominent horticulturist informs us that this is exceedingly rare, no instance of the kind having ever before come under his observation.

"WHAT will you charge to express an opinion?" was the rather startling inquiry hurled at Express Agent Payne by an early riser this morning.

Agent Payne sized up his customer and replied, "Well, express matter goes by weight, and if your opinion is weighty it will cost considerable, but I imagine it will not be very expensive in your case."

THE customer and the Agent were sent at Power & Reynolds's docks fountain five minutes later.

EARLY yesterday morning a young man named A. L. Dolson was caught in the room of a young woman guest of the Oak House, Cincinnati. The clerk very considerably resented the young man's going to his room, while the unfortunate girl was ordered to leave the house in the most summary manner. She paid her bill with money furnished by Dolson and promised to go. An hour later she had jumped from a fourth-story window and was soon a corpse. It is supposed that her name was Bessie Montgomery, of a good family of Springfield, Ky., who had gone to Cincinnati in search of employment, and who sacrificed her virtue because of failure to secure work. The world will forgive Dolson, and the ladies will do so upon him, while the name of the poor girl will go down in disgrace. Oh, for a revolution in this execrable thing we call society!

ADDRESS OF HON. W. A. BYRON

Delivered at Brookville on Memorial Day, May 30th, 1892.

Although somewhat late, THE LEDGER, in response to many inquiries, prints below the address of Hon. W. A. Byron, delivered at Brookville May 30th.

The publication is made as early as the MSS. could be obtained, and it is due to Mr. Byron to say that the delay has not been caused by him.

Being introduced to the large assembly, the speaker said:

Veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, Ladies and Gentlemen, it gives me great pleasure to have the privilege of speaking to more of you on this occasion. Every occasion that calls together a body of intelligent citizens is of more or less importance, but this one is of very great importance for the reason that you have come together for the purpose of considering and meditating upon the story of your country's history and paying reverent respect and honor to the memory of those who have sacrificed their lives in order that a government of the people, by the people and for the people might live and continue to hand down to future generations that freedom and protection with which no government is a tyrant and liberty a myth.

There is no song or story that presents greater heroes or heroines for our admiration and our love than the great story—the true story of the old American people. It is the story of those who first laid the siege of civilization to the trackless forest, the wild animal the wild bird and the wild beast. It is the story of you, my friends, ever step to consider that four centuries ago where now the farmer drives his docile team and the gentle herds of his cattle are browsing peacefully, the wild Indian's whoop and the wild buffalo's tramp shook the forest; where now that palatial mansions stand which we call the luxuries of civilized life was then the rude camp of the pioneer; where then was the path of moving palaces on which we can rest in peace while with lightning-like speed the wheels of commerce are turning and the Maine winter into the tropical surroundings of a California summer; where then was the wigwag of the barbarian; are now the palatial houses of the aristocracy; where then flickered the dim and uncertain light of the pioneer's lamp, where now the light of the electric light; where then, if friends were separated by the distance of a few hundred miles they were as near as the stars, where now we find as if they inhabited different spheres, now runs the telegraph to bring at a moment's notice the news of the world, where now we find as if they inhabited different spheres, now runs the telegraph to bring at a moment's notice the news of the world.

der tones and bade them stake their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor to preserve England from fastening those chains on them which she had been forging for years in order that she might have them in readiness to ensnare them should they could pay a ransom. The war of the Revolution was fought, and every schoolboy knows the result. Our independence was won. But as John Adams predicted, it did cost money, it did cost blood and it has richly compensated for both. The nude and starving sons by Valley Forge and Washington at the head was never equalled before in the history of the world for patient endurance and all the soldier-like qualities that it takes to fire the heart and steel the nerve to a determination to win the victory or die in the attempt. English gold has not been able to buy down their arms and desert the cause of liberty and humanity, but those who brought the message the English's bribes were hanged for their pains.

After we were established on what some regarded as a solid basis in a governmental way and our institutions were bidding fair to show a promiscuity of character not expected by the mother country, she made a second attempt to strangle the old Liberty while still in its swaddling clothes, but it is said to the glory and credit of the brave men and stars and stripes through the war of 1812.

Old England received a more complete whiping in that struggle than she did before, and six months after the war had been declared old hickory Jackson, not having heard of the peace, in a battle that has immortalized that name was slain. The war was not only the struggle of the brave men and stars and stripes through the war of 1812.

Twice President.

Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, of Illinois, the Nominee.

Ex-Gov. Gray, Morse, and Mitchell, are All Knocked Out.

How Does Decline to Accept Second Place? A Movement to Show the Growing Hope of Speculators Which Ate All National Conventions.

CHICAGO, June 24.—At 2:30 p. m., Chairman Wilson called the convention to order, and prayer was offered by the Rev. Thos. Green, of St. Paul.

The chairman—Gen. James H. Wilson, the next business before the convention will be the nomination of a candidate for the office of vice president of the United States. (Cheers.) The chair will now direct the clerk to call the roll of the states for nominations for that office.

On motion of Gov. Porter, of Tennessee, nominating speakers were limited to five minutes each, and the second round of nominations was held in the same order.

When the clerk called Arkansas, Mr. Porphyry stated that Arkansas desired to waive the right to nominate in favor of Illinois. The chairman then introduced the name of John H. Hines, who placed in nomination ex-Gov. Isaac P. Gray, of Illinois.

When Iowa was called there were cries of "Hole, holes." The clerk brought Hon. J. H. Shields, of Kansas, to the front. "Iowa said that it has no candidate," he said. "I thank it, it is Gov. Briggs, united with the wish that the delegation from Iowa should be nominated or named as a candidate for the vice-presidential nomination." (Applause.)

Hon. T. Scott, of the Iowa delegation, made the nomination of ex-Gov. Gray, of Illinois. Mr. J. S. Hines, responding to the call of Kentucky, seconded the nomination of Stevenson.

"Great applause." Because he believed further that there are honest and competent men enough in the democratic party to stand on their own feet, and I warrant the assertion that if he is placed in this high position, magnitude and responsibility will state on his hands.

"I support Illinois," said Hines, "because I understand he is a democrat who believes that to the victor belongs the spoils. Great applause." Because he believed further that there are honest and competent men enough in the democratic party to stand on their own feet, and I warrant the assertion that if he is placed in this high position, magnitude and responsibility will state on his hands.

Mr. Cunningham, of Tennessee, the representative of the delegation from that state seconded the nomination of Isaac P. Gray in a brief speech.

Texas also seconded the nomination of Isaac P. Gray.

Virginia seconded Gen. Stevenson, Washington that of Gray.

When the state of Wisconsin was called the veterans Gen. Edwin S. Briggs was put forward by his delegation to nominate John L. Mitchell, the millionaire railroad man and member of congress.

No response was heard from Wyoming, Alaska, Arizona or of the delegates from Idaho. To the call of New Mexico, J. S. Pedersen seconded the nomination of John L. Mitchell, and trustee democrat in all this world," Isaac P. Gray, of Illinois.

Arkansas seconded Stevenson. Utah had no candidate to present and the chairman of the Territory declared that he had no candidate to present.

Mr. W. F. Vandover, of Georgia, on behalf of the delegates of the south seconded the nomination of J. S. Hines.

Mr. J. H. King, of Alabama, also seconded the nomination of the "warmed iron of Mississippi Rule." (Applause.)

The chairman—Gen. Wilson, four names have been presented to the convention as candidates for the nomination for the vice presidency. They are the names of the Hon. Isaac P. Gray, of Illinois; the Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, of Illinois; the name of Hon. Allen H. Morse, of Michigan; the name of Hon. John L. Mitchell, of Wisconsin. The secretary of the convention will now call the roll of states and receive the votes of each delegation.

As the ballot proceeded it was evident that the two strongest candidates were Gen. Stevenson, and the adherents of each adhered with their respective candidates. The candidate showed up with the highest number of votes from the state delegations.

The ballot before any change were made, resulted as follows:

Arkansas—Morse, 2.

Why He Lost.

Anti-Cleveland Men Wreak Vengeance on Gov. Gray.

Because the Indiana Delegates Cast Their Votes in Favor of Cleveland.

The Empire State and the Prairie State Clashed Hands Through the Intervention of Hon. Wm. M. Springer and Canceled Stevenson's Nomination.

CHICAGO, June 24.—The democracy of the nation named the presidential candidate, but the president-elect, to Tammany Hall, of New York, to name the candidate for vice presidency. Illinois, the state whose forty-eight votes at the critical juncture turned the tide in favor of the nomination of Cleveland, and New York, the state in the face of whose protest the great popular leader was named, the president-elect, to Tammany Hall, of New York, to name the candidate for vice presidency. Gen. Wilson, who presided over the convention, called the chair and in a short address urged the delegates to support the nomination of Cleveland.

A great host of protest went up from the galleries. The delegates from the state of New York, who were seated in the front of the hall, were the first to protest. They were followed by the delegates from the state of Illinois, who were seated in the next row.

CONDENSED NEWS.

Stashed in the Store!

O. K. Finestock still alive but very low, and can't last long.

The terrible stab of Finestock at Henry Ott's store brings its natural results. Stock is going fast. Low prices lower the stock so rapidly that it can't last long, and those who have resolved to take advantage of this extraordinary opportunity should act the action to the word, and buy at once.

This Stab Has Bled Profits to Death and prices are now nothing but a skeleton which any purse can wrestle with. Come and try it.
